April Short Meeting and Board Meeting

New Member Brett Jones was initiated into the club and he attended dinner with his young son. Our program was the Humane Society the Director Darla Gow spoke to the club about recent successes at placing some difficult animals. She reported they are a no kill shelter so they try to place every animal they house. They have a pot bellied Pig ready for adoption if you want a more unique pet. They employ 11 people parttime and rely on volunteers for much of their labor needs. She noted both TSC and Walmart donate food to feed their residents.

The club was read the slate of officers listed below and voted to accept this list. The publication in the newsletter is our second reading of the officers and we will have a third reading at our next club meeting. The Sight and Hearing committee reported we have 3-4 machines available for loan.

Board Meeting: The board voted to approve another antivegf shot for a patient who is facing a sight threatening condition that is being treated by North Central Eye Assoc. The Board did not take action on a request from Easter Seals to support their summer camp. It was reported that three prospective new members have been given forms to complete so our recent success at recruiting new members seems to be continuing.
